Colleagues:

Recent actions of the United States government have caused an unprecedented wave of anxiety, particularly among segments of our community who are most vulnerable to disruptions of their lives and livelihoods. Old Town School unequivocally welcomes the participation of everyone, regardless of religion, country of origin, gender orientation or political persuasion.

Our registrars and box office staff will never ask about anybody's citizenship or residency status. We don't care where you come from or how you got here. We do care that every individual feels safe within our facilities and in every interaction with our School's community. And we will continue to be a place where you can frequently encounter great performers from every part of the world.
